➔ Transfers outside of the European Economic Area

ORPHELIA Pharma may need to transfer your personal data outside of the European Economic Area. In that case, processes will comply with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 requirements.

➔ How do we protect your personal information?

We want to make sure your personal information is not shared with or used by those not allowed to see it. ORPHELIA Pharma will implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure an appropriate level of security regarding the risk incurred and protect your personal data against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

➔ What are your rights? How can you exercise them?

Under applicable Data Protection Law, notably the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR") you have several rights regarding your personal data.

These rights are as follows:

> Right to Access - You can ask to see the personal information ORPHELIA Pharma holds about you. In connection with a request, ORPHELIA Pharma may ask specific information about you to enable us to confirm your identity and right access, as well as search for and provide you with the personal information ORPHELIA Pharma holds about you. In the event we cannot provide you with access to your personal information (for instance, personal information may have been destroyed, erased, or made anonymous), we will inform you of the reasons why.

> Correction or Deletion of Personal Information – ORPHELIA Pharma ensures that personal information in its possession is accurate, current, and complete. If you believe that the personal information ORPHELIA Pharma holds on you is incorrect, inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated, you may request the revision or correction of that information. If it is determined that personal information is inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated, we will revise it.

> Withdrawal of Consent - If you have provided consent for the processing of your data, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time which will not affect the lawfulness of the processing before your consent was withdrawn.

> Objection to processing - you have the possibility to object to the processing of your personal data.

> Limitation to processing - you have the right to obtain from us restriction of processing in certain instances as provided by data protection law.

> Right to data portability - you have the right to receive the personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format when the processing is based on your consent or on a contract. You also have the right to ask us to transmit it to another data controller of your choice.

> Complaints - You have the right to lodge a complaint to the Data Protection Authority, if you believe that ORPHELIA Pharma has not complied with the requirements of the GDPR with regard to your personal data.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights, please send a specific request via email to :
